Pro•Dual Bicep Tricep

Body-Solid's Pro•Dual Bicep & Tricep Machine provides a seamless change from bicep exercise to triceps exercise with dual grip handles. The adjustable seat and upper arm pad are designed to align the elbow with the rotational axis of the lifting arm. The machine's handle pivots to enhance user comfort.

The Bicep & Tricep Machine builds form into function and value into a superior modular strength training system. Best of all, you can buy with confidence, because the Bicep & Tricep Machine is built to last a lifetime and is backed by the strongest warranty in the industry!
